

CRIMINAL JUSTICE-LAW ENFORCEMENT 720 ACADEMY MINIMUM STANDARDS

- The applicant shall have attained a minimum age of 18 years.
- The applicant shall possess a Wisconsin high school diploma or a diploma issued by an out of state high school accredited by an appropriate agency of the state or have a general education development (GED) certificate or a high school equivalency diploma (HSED). In Wisconsin, high school diplomas are issued by public and private schools. A home-based private educational program does not lead to a traditional Wisconsin high school diploma. A student who is enrolled in a home-based private educational program must attain a GED or HSED to be eligible for preparatory law enforcement officer training.
- The applicant shall possess a valid Wisconsin driver's license or such other valid operator's permit recognized by the Wisconsin department of transportation as authorizing operation of a motor vehicle in Wisconsin.
- The applicant shall not have been convicted of any felony or of any other offense which if committed in Wisconsin could be punished as a felony unless the applicant has been granted an absolute and unconditional pardon.
- The applicant shall not have been convicted of any misdemeanor crime of domestic violence unless the applicant has been granted an absolute and unconditional pardon.
- The applicant shall not be prohibited by federal or state law from possessing a firearm.
- The applicant shall be a united states citizen.
- The applicant shall possess either a minimum 2-year associate degree from an accredited college or university or a minimum of 40 accredited semester credits or 90 quarter credits. An official college transcript from the educational institution where credit was awarded shall serve as evidence of an applicant having met the associate degree or college credit requirement.
- A physical assessment shall be conducted to verify that the applicant can meet the physical standards required of a law enforcement officer. The assessment shall be conducted by a Wisconsin licensed physician who shall provide a signed written report on the results of the assessment to the training school.
